Find Fall Fun in Calvert County this November

Discover what you LOVE in Calvert County!

Support Local Sites and Attractions

November is here, and the crisp, cool weather may have moved in, but Calvert County abounds with picturesque sites and attractions. Go outside and enjoy the breezy weather or cozy up with family and friends at home for a virtual adventure. Check out the Calvert County Calendar of Events for entertaining and enjoyable events.

It's the Perfect Season for a Splendid Park Picnic

Looking for an excuse to enjoy more time outdoors this fall? The Calvert County departments of Parks & Recreation and Economic Development have teamed up to offer "Picnic in the Parks" to help you support local businesses while enjoying all that our local parks have to offer. When visiting a participating park, look for the "Picnic in the Parks" banner and scan the QR code with your phone to see a map of nearby restaurants that offer takeout or delivery. "Picnic in the Parks" banners can be found at Cove Point, Dunkirk District and Hallowing Point parks. Get outdoors and enjoy local food at a local park!

Take a Scenic Drive to See County Artwork

For a fun weekend road trip scavenger hunt that's close to home, check out the Calvert Barn Quilt Trail! The mission of the trail is to connect the community to Calvert County's agricultural heritage, local history and artistic talent through the exhibition of hand-painted wooden quilt squares on barns and buildings throughout Calvert County.
